

The Kaizer Meadow Environmental Management Centre is a second-generation landfill and the future site of a next generation Eco Park. Each of the companies that will be located in the Eco Park will be related to the environment (giving back and enhancing).